

Newton methods for variational inequalities

Prof. Asen Dontchev (TU Wien and University of Michigan)

The talk begins with a survey on convergence results for various Newton-type methods including the Kantorovich-Bartle theorem. Extensions to non-smooth equations and variational inequalities will be shown, as well as generalizations of the Dennis-More theorem.

Inexact versions of methods will be also discussed. An application to Model Predictive Control will be presented.